lab2

vasapranavi

January 2019

1 Introduction

First I have drawn scatter plots and histograms to the vehicle data.

After that I have developed bootstrap code in which I have calculated the mean, upper and lower bounds of the data.

And then I have found upper and lower bound to the vehicle data. Through that I have found that new fleet is better compared the current fleet as it has more mean.